A. Email Communication

Email 1: Cold Introductory Email

Subject: Helping Luxe by Madiha reach more customers on Facebook and TikTok

Dear Ms. Madiha,

I hope you are well. My name is Sara Ahmed, and I am a consultant at GrowthBridge Consulting. We help fashion and retail businesses in Pakistan improve their social media visibility and content quality.

I have admired the presentation of Luxe by Madiha's collections online. Many online clothing brands find that good products do not always reach enough people because of weak video hooks, inconsistent posting or unclear content planning. We would like to explore whether we can support you with a structured, data-based approach.

Would you be open to a short 15-minute conversation this week or next? I can work around your schedule.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Kind regards,
Sara Ahmed
Project Lead, GrowthBridge Consulting

Dear Ms. Madiha,

I wrote earlier this week about how GrowthBridge Consulting could help improve your Facebook and TikTok reach. I understand that you are busy, so I will keep this short.

We would first review your current social media performance and then suggest practical steps. We do not promise instant or viral results; our focus is on clear measurement and steady improvement.

May I suggest a 15-minute call on Tuesday or Wednesday? Please let me know a time that suits you.

Warm regards,
Sara Ahmed
GrowthBridge Consulting

Email 11: Bidding Email (Responding to the Client's Demands and Needs)

Subject: Our proposed approach to your social media needs: Luxe by Madiha

Dear Ms. Madiha,

Thank you for explaining your needs so clearly during our discussions. You told us that your main concerns are low reach and low video views on Facebook and TikTok, limited team time, and the need to keep your brand tone elegant and honest.

In response, GrowthBridge Consulting proposes to:

- Audit your current Facebook and TikTok performance and set a baseline (Month 1).
- Develop a content strategy and monthly calendar that your team can realistically follow (Month 2).
- Provide AI-assisted captions, hooks, hashtags and calls to action, all reviewed by a human and approved by you where product claims are involved (Months 3 to 6).
- Report monthly and hand over templates and guidelines at the end of Month 6.

Our proposed consulting fee is PKR 90,000 for six months. Advertising spend, subscriptions and photography are not included unless separately agreed. We cannot guarantee specific results, but we will measure progress against your baseline and report honestly.

Please let us know whether this approach matches your priorities. We will then submit the full proposal.

Kind regards,
Sara Ahmed
GrowthBridge Consulting

Email 12: Costing Details Discussion Email

Subject: Budget details and payment schedule: Luxe by Madiha project

Dear Ms. Madiha,

Thank you for your questions about the budget. To make the costs clear, here is the breakdown of the proposed PKR 90,000 consulting fee:

Item	Amount (PKR)
Initial audit and strategy	25,000
Content planning	20,000
AI-assisted content optimization	20,000
Performance monitoring and reporting	15,000
Final evaluation and handover	10,000
Total	90,000

Payment is proposed in four installments linked to milestones: 30% (PKR 27,000) at the start, 20% (PKR 18,000) after strategy approval, 20% (PKR 18,000) after the mid-project review, and 30% (PKR 27,000) at final handover.

This is an academic estimate. Advertising expenditure, subscriptions, photography and other external costs are excluded unless separately agreed. If you would like to adjust the scope to fit your budget, we can discuss which services to change.

Would you be available for a short call on [Date] to go through any remaining questions?

Best regards,
